Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2007

---

1. Nature of business

Devonshire Industries Limited (“the company”) and Bermuda Paint Company Limited (“the subsidiary”) (note 2(a)) are incorporated under the laws of Bermuda and are primarily engaged in the management of the Bermuda Paint Company Limited. The Company is listed on the Bermuda Stock Exchange.

2. Significant accounting policies

The accompanying financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Bermuda and Canada. The preparation of these financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect reported amounts of assets, liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as at the date of the financial statements. Estimates also affect the reported amounts of income and expenses for the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Outlined below are those policies considered particularly significant.

(a) Principles of consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of Devonshire Industries Limited and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Bermuda Paint Company Limited. All significant inter-company transactions and balances are eliminated on consolidation.

(b) Inventories

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost (either average or actual cost as appropriate to the class of inventory) and net realizable value.

(c) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are carried at cost or appraised value, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is charged on a straight-line basis, unless noted below, over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Buildings (based on gross book value after appraisals (note 4))	4%
Factory forklift and electrical improvements	10%
Factory and office equipment (diminishing balance method)	15%
Motor vehicles	20%
Computers	25%

(d) Revenue recognition

Sales comprise the fair value of the consideration received for the sale of products in the ordinary course of the company’s activities.

(e) Cash and time deposits

Cash and time deposits include deposits having a maturity of less than three months.

	2,238,639	1,372,173	866,466	945,733

Depreciation in the amount of $107,085 (2006 - $112,770) has been charged against income during the year of which $18,203 (2006 - $22,004) is included in the calculation of cost of sales.

In 1976, 1981 and 1992 the land and buildings were appraised. In 1992, the value of the land and buildings was appraised by Woodbourne Associates Ltd. The person who carried out the appraisal is also a director of the company. The revaluation resulted in an increase in the excess of appraised value of property, plant and equipment over depreciated cost of $601,633 (note 4). The excess of the appraised value over depreciated cost is included in shareholders' equity. The portion of the depreciation for the year of $26,504 (2006 - $26,504) which represents the realization of the appraisal increase has been transferred to retained earnings (note 4).
